

With the Amateurs

By Joseph A. West.

Walker ("Jake") Poh, who is playing shortstop for the Grays, in the Capital City League, is a splendid fielder and an excellent base runner. He is also there with the stickwork. He is ever ready to take advantage of any little slip in the game. A verification of this came in the sixth inning of the Grays-Barton Heights game yesterday, when Jake backed up Blunt, the catcher of the Grays, and prevented Amos from scoring a run which would have won the game for Barton Heights.

Heywood Hoover, shortstop, third baseman and general utility man for the Barton Heights team, will leave Richmond next Tuesday to spend a month's vacation among the Semipros in Charlotte, N. C.

"Hugo" Onesty, recently signed by the Tylers, is an exceptionally good outfielder. He is a fast man, and should strengthen the outfield for the "Champs."

In the ranks of amateur baseball are to be found many efficient and heady ball players, but in the estimation of most of the amateur-loving sportsmen and fans, the Grays lead the list with the team work.

"Ty" Lester, pitcher and outfielder for the Barton Heights team, is fastly rounding into pitching form again.

"Nick" Parsons is catching for the C. S. Luck team, of the Commercial League. Nick has a splendid arm, and hits close to the .400 mark.

"Cheese" Leibs has quit amateur baseball for something higher up. He is now officially signed with the Roanoke club, of the Virginia League. A youngster, "Cheese" has much ability as a catcher. With good coaching he will surely succeed.

"Chief" Hierholzer, the new recruit for the C. S. Luck Company's team, is expected to show up in good form. "Hi" played for Benedictine College for two years, and led that team in batting this year. His average is .464. His batting should prove detrimental to the Commercial League's pitchers.

Jake Poh and Stanley Rigby featured in two double plays yesterday against Barton Heights. Midket also offered his assistance. Some fast, eh!

Koenig, Portner's shortstop, is the highest averaged batter of the Richmond League. "Kon" bats close to the .500 mark throughout the season.

Kingham has signed a new catcher, Hampton. The new recruit will have to go some to outplay Hoekins, the present catcher.

From all appearances, Benedictine College and John Marshall High School will be the two rivals for the paragon school football league this fall. Manager Colvard, for the cadets, said last night that he was fully confident of winning the cup.

With a strengthened back field and such men as Mahoney, Parsons and Fletcher his hopes are well grounded.

Little "Tanner" Dowden tied the Grays-Barton Heights game yesterday with a neat single. The Grays are lucky in having this lad, as he is improving fast.

"Dutch" Creamer caught his usual good game yesterday for the American Clothing Co.

"Tootsie" Redford, the new addition to the Gray's pitching staff, won his first game. Good start.

"Jimmy" Taylor is back in the game for Woodall & Quarles. He was injured last Saturday, and had to be carried from the field.

"Connie" Gentry is pitching stellar ball for Woodall & Quarles.

Bowers and Howell, also of the Woodall & Quarles outfit, are improving.

The Grays are still leaders in Capital City League.

No Game. Crafts Piano Company-Simon-Schuster game Saturday; no game, wet grounds.

The Home Brewing Company team defeated the C. S. Luck team yesterday in one of the best played games of the season by the score of 3 to 1. Banister, for the Home Brewing team, pitched one of the best games of the season, striking out ten men and allowing three scratch hits. Howard, for the Home Brewing Company, carried off the batting honors, getting four hits out of five times at bat.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Home Brewing Co.....000300000-3 C. S. Luck.....000000000-0 0 0

Batteries: Home Brewing Company, Banister and Hogan; C. S. Luck, Miller and Parsons.

Richmond Electric Wins. In a very one-sided contest, the Richmond Electric Co. defeated the Lovestons yesterday at R. E. Park. The score 26 to 3. Love's last home run, a slippery ball accounted for the heavy score.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Richmond E. Co.....134101024-26 Lovestons.....020011000-3

Where They Play Next. Grays vs. Battle Axe, at Byrd Park. Ashland vs. Jacobs & Levy, at Ashland. Barton Heights vs. Collegians, at Lee Park.

Grays Win in Thirteenth. Singles by Biggie, Blunt and Saracino in the thirteenth brought another victory for the Grays after one of the hardest-fought pitcher's battles that has ever been witnessed in this city. Redford and Lohman were the opposing twirlers, and each pitched beautifully at all times. Each pitcher allowed eight hits and four bases on balls, while Redford caused fourteen to fan the air. Simpson's batting, Poh's fielding, Biggie's baserunning and the work of the hurlers deserve special mention, while Poh's backing of Blunt's miscue in the sixth, on a throw by Saracino, and his tagging of Amos after he had failed to touch home, saved the game for the Grays.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Grays.....110001000000-7 Barton Heights.....0010020000001-4

Batteries: L. Whitfield and Hay; Redford and Tignor. Umpires, Pearson and Bagby.

Collegians-Ashland game, postponed by agreement.

Aces Win Also. John Whitfield's charges defeated the old Southern Bell Telephone Company's team, which is now playing under the head of Jacobs & Levy. The final score was 13 to 2. The grounds were so sloppy that it was hardly a test of a team's playing ability. Still, they played nine full innings, hence Battle Axe is credited with a win. It was a featureless game throughout the nine full innings. Next Saturday the Battle Axes will meet the Grays. What then?
